2007 La Sereinite Chardonnay

$70.00 Retail

$59.50 Advocates Club

Our third vintage of La Sereinite remains an exciting and truly distinctive wine. The color is again classically light golden, though the depth and concentration of the vintage reflects the very small berry size. The nose is brooding and complex, more so than usual at this young stage. However, the wine possesses a wild mix of notes not often found together. Exotic tropical aromas of passionfruit and perfectly ripe pineapple are the counterpoint against richer notes of crème brulee, lemon oil, quince, and orange marmalade, followed by that strikingly uncommon “wet stone” minerality. The palate upon release shows a tension between acidity and structure, but with a rich, round mid-palate buffering the crisp, lingering finish.

2007 Old Wenté Chardonnay

$35 Retail

$29.75 Advocates Club

In the glass, this Chardonnay displays a clear, deep yellow hue with notable brilliance. Creamy lemon meringue dominates a particularly complex nose; look for an appealing mélange of aromas that include light vanilla, toasted nut, baked golden delicious apple, butter toffee and citrus-laced brioche. The creamy lemon pie quality continues on the palate, juxtaposed by light spice notes and a flinty, mineral impression. The Wenté Clone is best known for its texture, density and weight, giving this wine a rich, mouth filling presence on a long, lingering finish.

2006 Estate Quail Hill Vineyard Pinot Noir

$60 Retail

$51.00 Advocates Club

What we have in this wine is taut highly aromatic expression of our estate vineyard where elegance, balance, and structure are all seamlessly interwoven. While the color is “moderate” versus intensely deep, color has never been what this wine is about. Aroma and perfume are what sets this wine apart, and those qualities are more pronounced than any recent vintage. There is wonderful purity in the fruit and spice notes with strawberry, currant, red raspberry, and orange pekoe tea complementing the more classic cherry cola, baking spice, and floral characters. Flavors are nicely in line with the aromas and additionally include wet stone mineral notes, and very subtle well integrated toasty oak. Tannins are grainy but balanced and work with the brisk acidity that to yield an exceptionally long, flavorful finish.

2007 Terra de Promissio Pinot Noir

$70.00 Retail

$59.50 Advocates Club

As our only Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir, our Terra de Promissio offering has a very distinctive sensory profile and texture. With only a little air and breathing, wonderfully expansive notes of dark fruits and classic Sonoma Coast baking spice begin emerging in waves, followed by a complex array of pure berry and cherry aromas, exotic Asian spices, and subtle toasty oak nuances. While the fruit flavors echo the aromas in their dark, brooding intensity, there is at the same time, an elegance from the cool, slow-ripening vintage where added dimension was gained without any hint of overripe character. There is a healthy amount of young, grippy tannins here that give length to the finish and promote all the spicy, dark fruit aromas and flavors to linger for many seconds.
